FOOTBALL SEASON STARTS ON THE LOCAL SCENE

A game that has been instrumental in determining the football fortunes of Newport Harbor High School will provide head coach Bill Pizzica an early season look at his N.H.H.S. varsity.

Today's game, where no pads are allowed and only the backs and ends participate, is the fifth matchup of graduating veterans against the present varsity crop. And, the outcome, if the past is any indication, will provide a clue as to the season ahead. In 1973 and '74, when Newport won with Steve Bukich and Gordon Adams, they also went on to become Sunset League champs. Last year's game was won by the alumni, but only by the scant margin of one touchdown. The '77 Newport Varsity then went on to the C.I.F.

Joining this year's alumni eleven from last year's Newport squad are Wayne Kasperek, Bobby Brown, Frank Venclik and Tim Gooding.

Returning alumni veterans still active on the collegiate scene are Vin Mulroy, sr. starting end, Stanford; Steve Foley, jr. db, Stanford; Erik Escher, jr. wide receiver, UCLA; Tom Bazacas, sr. wide receiver, Redlands; Dave Simmons, sr. strong side receiver, Redlands; Gordon Adams, soph backup qb, USC; Art Sorce, placekicker, USC; Dee Ward, soph db, Oregon State; Brian Theriot, UCLA track.

Bob Curry, ex-California Bear db and assistant coach on the Newport Varsity two years ago, will also see action for the alumni.

The Newport Varsity just completed an excellent summer of competition in Passing League, where qb Dave Hitzel and receiver Chris Cates hooked up to form a winning passing combination. Hitzel returns this year as starting qb, altho he earned All-League honors last year as a defensive back. Dave Thompson, linebacker, also returns to the Newport Varsity after earning All League last year. Today's starting Newport lineup includes:

Randy Starr, end; Scott Benjamin, te; Dave Hitzel, qb; Chris Cates, se; Jay Volzke, back; Brian Ward, back. On defense, the Sailors start Scott McKay, lb; Dave Thompson, lb; Dave Deruff, lb; Alan Gaddis, c; Fernando Castorena, monster, with Ward and Hitzel at corner and safety.

★ ALUMNI PROFILES ★

 LISTED FOR EACH ALUM IS: NUMBER, NAME, HEIGHT, WEIGHT, POSITION, SCHOOLS ATTENDED OR ATTENDING, AND YEARS HE PLAYED AT NEWPORT.

13 Gordon "Hot Wheels" Adams 6'3" 200 QB USC 74-5

Head USC football coach John Robinson was over heard to say, "Gordon has probably the quickest feet we've ever seen here at USC." Unfortunately Robinson was talking in his sleep at the time. However, Gordon is so fast that the Newport stadium crew must repair the turf with each QB sneak. Hank Cochrane says, "The only player we've seen in recent years to rival Adams' speed is Greg Paquin." Debbie Beatty agrees and further states that on one occasion, "I saw so many moves that I lost my defensive game plan." One thing is certian, Adams is one trojan who will not "burst" under pressure.

2.1 "Dancin' Dan" Christy 6'2" 175 FB USC 74-5

Swift, smooth, quick, and easy, WOW! That's Christy. Dan once had a 70 yard run for a touchdown, although he ran low on gas at about the 20 yard line. In fact Trainer Bob was heard to say, "I thought Dan was dead." Dan has now come back, after three years, to play in today's game - a fast recovery from that 70 yard run. Dan is always trying to use his brain and think of a "beta" way to do things. A true "frat rat" from the word go. When asked for his most memorable moment, Dan replied, "the day I sat in Vikki Vineyards closet." Dan is also eternally thankful to Erik Escher for not stealing "his" jersey, so that Dan could wear it while playing football at Newport.

K9 Scott "Mr. Skippy" Loman 5'11" 170 K OCC, USC 74-5

Scott has always been a "doggon" good kicker, but is best known for his dates with Suzanne Oelke. He is the third part of the USC "triple threat." Scott really made a name for himself while pitchin' "quads" with Tom Bazacas, head to head, in the back track locker room at Newport. Uncle Bob Hailey had this to say about Scott: "He was with-out a doubt, the finest dogger we've ever had here at Newport." Scott's talents don't just stop at kicking. Look for him at linebacker, end, running back, and up in the stands drinking a beer.

4 Charlie "C.U. Later" Untagrove 5'9" 175 OCC, Redlands

74-5

Commonly known as Injin'Joe... Charlie is out for young scalp today, watch out little boys. Injin'Joe can hit, and he is ready. Charlie is best known for the day he drove into peak-a-boo Sue's living room. When asked why he did this, he replied, "I was on the war path."

32 Steve "Spike" Foley 6'2" 195 OCC, Stanford 74-5

Better known as spike, recently recieved a scholarship to Stanford, he has also taken out a 100,000 dollar loan to pay for tutors and test-takers, good luck Steve. Steve's prowess in the backfeild is only matched by his prowess in other backfeilds. The "lip" in romance circles has many DRULLIN' young 14yr. olds in the stands cheering him on today.

22 Tim "The Pure Source" Brown 5'10" 175 Redlands 72-3

The Dr. of surf! Tim will romance these young bucks into slumber, then he will insure an alum' victory with finesse and style. Tim the Bulldog flash is also in the same speed category as Gordon Adams, ask, Beth Salvador. She said, "He's got it, he'll use and beware, because the Bolt will score."

45 Bobby "pink bear" Brown 5'8" 145 OCC 76-7

In the inner world of athletics Bobby is better known as "pink bear". This cumming from his prolific tan he receives while lying under the Harvest Moon. If some of the young varsity men come off the feild seeing pink elephants it will probably be a good strong hit from pink bear. Most memorable moment! Having R.J. piss in Theriot's locker and having it run down on mine.

15 Dave "Simmons" Simmons 5'11" 190 TE Menlo, Redlands
73-4

The bo-legged wonder from South Pasadena has always been his "own man." There have however, been a few exceptions. These list as, "piece of the rock," "bugger", and "The Holk. But when "Lil" Davey" sets chicks aside, he is a terror on the grigiron. A vital cog in the "three Dave trio", Simmons can do it all. After an impressive scholastic campain at Menlo, Dave was awarded the "Erik Escher Memorial Scholarship" for academic exelence. He then transfered to Redlands where he was over heard to say, "Jill where are you?"

14 Paul "Head Knocker" Helfrich 5'8" 165 DB OCC or Redlands 76-7

Paul is part of the good German stock that Jim and Kathy Helfrich have brought to Newport. Paul is a player that can really pop!(pop a beer). Part of his long list of accomplishments include Rose Greyshock, Jayne Draganza, and Linda Esslinger. He is best known for his "head crunching" hitting style, and the out-of-this-world parties he threw while his parents were in Europe. Most memorable moment: "When I sat in the stands during the Edison game of 74, and watched my brother Dave, throw his shoe off the field and cost Brian Theriot a T.D.

27 Brian "Quick Whit" Whitford 6' 180 LB OCC, Cal 74-5

Mr. Pop Warner. Brian is still known for his awesome two yard plunge against the Stanton Toritos that sent the game into over-time. Rolly Pullaski says, "There will never be another Cowboy like Brian." Speed? Whitford has it. Bill Pizzica had this to say about Whitford, "Brian made many of our past corners look slow. In fact he could make it faster to Mr. Donut than anybody I've had the pleasure to to coach."

28 Frank "Frankie Baby" Venclik 6' 160 End OCC 76-7

The All- American boy, straight out of the Vin Mulroy proto-type mold. Uncle Bob Hailey says, "Oh hell, Franks a track man, football can wait." But the Alums are the ones who can't wait to use Franks' tallents. His former team-mates must beware of Franks' ruthless hitting, not to mention his singing voice. Venclik was able to reach the state finals in track this past year, thanks to the training he recieved early in the year from Dana "Swivel Hips" Dabrou.

33 Dee "Eat A Beaver" Ward 6'3" 185 DB OSU 75-6

Dee has been known some times to give "token" effort, but more often than not he gives 100%. It is rumored that he got his scholarship through some kind of "raquet," but you will know that this is not the case when you see Dee play. Ward is also known for his tremendous right hook, however, it has yet to land on anything but a girls face.

50 Dave "5-o Bucko" Shaw 5'10" 170 LB Menlo, SLO
73-4

Mr. Party. Bucko was and is Newport's toughest hitter--even though most of them are usually late. Shaw is known for his fast red tennis shoes, especially around Dover shores. Dave is still thankful to this day that Loara's team let him score a touchdown on a 100 yard interception return.

3.3 Wayne "Bambi" Kasperek 6'1" 165 DB Weber State
76-7

"Wayner" is the player that can do it all when it comes to football, women, and parties. A legend in his own time, thats for sure, just ask one of his countless chicks. The only problem is you won't get much of an answer out of any of them, since we are talking about baby hens, and not girls.

? "The One, The Only, The Incredible" Steve Bruno 6'
240 Unknown Back East Somewhere, NAU, OCC, GWC,
OCC, Ocean View, Irvine, Planet Mars 74-5

BRUNO--the name says it all. There is no way justice can be done in such a short space.

41 Tom "S.Crew" Saftig 6'1" 215 LB OCC, Stanford 72-3

Without a doubt, Tom is the finest "stroker" on the alum squad. He has probably the biggest "bar" in Newport. He also has a fine tape collection, including the one that he had hidden under the couch his senior year. Today will be a true test for Tom, as he has yet to reach his full potential at linebacker.

30 Brian "Living Legend" Theriot 6' LEAN RB UCLA 73-4

A two year starter for the alumni, Brian has the speed of a thief in the night that has caught many a store clerk napping, promoting more than one to remark, "He's high-waisted like Dede Cooper." Coaches refer to his pass catching ability as "one who has the sure hands of a clepto." Look for Theriot to show his slashing running style that had his number retired (by him). Brian says that his two biggest thrills were: "When he had Jan (Lamb) Broussard wrapped around his little finger" and "Sitting up in the stands with Duffy, drinking 'Old English' while watching Escher play for Golden West". Person he admires most: Matt McFarland.

78 Tim "Bubs" Gooding 6'2" 190 P OCC 76-7

"Bubs" can really put his foot into the ball, not to mention his mouth. It was feared that for a time Tim might give up football, and become a professional skier, or down-hill racer. But luck is on the side of the alums, as he has decided to hold off for one more year and kick in today's game.

1.3 Artie "Roses to Reality" Source 6' 175 LB-K USC 73-4

Artie is known at SC as "a true author of kicking." He still remembers the day he read the National Enquirer article on the secret of dieting. He is a player that always works from "scratch" as Rick John can testify. Art has always been able to talk a great "deal". Artie's most memorable moment: "Blowing chow in Julie Tedesco's new Capri."

16 Tom "Little Skipper" Bazacas 7'7" 145 Rec GWC, Redlands 73-4

A true "born again" receiver. He is the kind of player that every young football player can look up to (but it's usually down on). Defenders must beware of this pint sized power pack. Tom was awarded the "Miller High Life" Southern Cal Player of the Week last year for efforts in the local Redlands bars. Tom performed especially well on Sundays last year (only the Lord knows why). And with today being a Sunday, that spells HELL for the Newport varsity. His most memorable moment: "The day I walked on to the Redlands campus and saw all the good lookin' babes."

21 Erik "shOLasTik AchIvEr" Escher 5'11½" 180 Rec GWC, UCLA 72-3

The brain trust of today's alums. UCLA coaches have waited nearly three years to utilize Escher's amazing hands, and amazing they are, as Kathleen Dixon will attest. Erik has been consulting with various pros for the last three years, but is now ready to turn his full attention to football. Escher can do it all. Up and down, that's his style. One of the older alumni veterans, it is hoped that Escher will be able to "manage" at least one touchdown in today's game. Larry Doyle calls Escher, "the greatest player ever to cum out of Newport. He always performed well-after the game."

40 Vin "Veteran Swifty" Mulroy 5'11½" 185 Rec Stanford 73-4

Mr. Macho, and proud of it, that's Vin. He has been a blessing to Palo Alto. Cool, calm under pressure, Mulroy replied after his game saving catch against Loara in 73, "I had it in the bag. I wanted to make sure we won, because 'Squezzems is terrible after a defeat." But Mulroy's biggest lift came last night, as his party was winding down, Right Vin? When asked what his biggest thrill was, Vinny replied, "The Comstock affair of 74."

100 Bob "Old Salt" Curry 5'9" 180 S Cal - Dark Ages

The oldest member of the alumni squad. But that doesn't mean Bob can't play. The alums are not afraid to gamble on this aged soul. Not only do the Newport Varsity fear these vintage bones, but their cheerleaders must avoid being 'stuck' as well. Most memorable moment: "The day they started serving Geritol at Blackies, it saved my love life."
